22 JUL 1982

Dear Bill

I have just written a line to [redacted] [redacted] who asked me before I left Washington if I could get hold of a photograph of [redacted] for your archives.
This is just to let you know that one of his daughters, [redacted], has kindly lent me one taken in 1946 and a very good likeness which I have forwarded to [redacted]

I must thank you once more for inviting me to join the Washington Seminar. I found the whole thing most interesting and it was nice to have the opportunity of meeting so many old friends.

Mary and I do hope that you and Sophia will pay us another visit here in the not too distant future.

Yours sincerely
